

PUBLIC

- Engineers, senior technicians, technicians in the cosmetic industry.
- The level of training can be adapted according to how the public is made up. Basic knowledge of biology, microbiology, toxicology and biochemistry is desirable.

AIMS

- To provide elements of theoretical and practical understanding of microbiological tests currently performed by the cosmetics industry.

PROGRAMME

Introduction to the various types of stability tests

Definition of CAP and useful life

Introduction to current regulations

Description of test to determine useful life

Description of test, compiled in collaboration with AFSSAPS to assess CAP

Practising estimation of the ODP

DURATION

1 day

TIMES

9:00 - 17:30

COST PER TRAINEE

800 €

Request for information

TEACHING RESOURCES

- The training combines theoretical explanations and practical discussions
- Expositions are based on the experiences of those involved
- A document listing all the training supports is provided