

STABILITY TESTS: DETERMINING THE USEFUL LIFE – EVALUATING THE ODP

PUBLIC

- Engineers, senior technicians, technicians in the cosmetic industry.
- The level of training can be adapted according to how the public is made up. Basic knowledge of biology, microbiology, toxicology and biochemistry is desirable.

DURATION
1 day

TIMES
9:00 – 17:30

COST PER TRAINEE
800 €

AIMS

- To provide elements of theoretical and practical understanding of microbiological tests currently performed by the cosmetics industry.

TEACHING RESOURCES

- The training combines theoretical explanations and practical discussions
- Expositions are based on the experiences of those involved
- A document listing all the training supports is provided

PROGRAMME

Introduction to the various types of stability tests

Definition of CAP and useful life

Introduction to current regulations

Description of test to determine useful life

Description of test, compiled in collaboration with AFSSAPS to assess CAP

Practising estimation of the ODP